Dear Ms. Butler,

I am pleased to bring greetings to the Northern Virginia Section of the American Society for Quality, Section 0511 on the occasion of your 30th anniversary.

The American Society for Quality has a long history whose roots date back to manufacturing. Yet in today's innovative world, the need for quality can be found in everything that we do. From government to education to human development and leadership, the need for quality sets the standard for excellence across many disciplines.

I applaud your vision and desire to make the world a better place through certification and training and by sharing your knowledge with others. Please accept my best wishes for your continued success and congratulations on your 30th anniversary!

Sincerely,
